

Coaching Certification

NCCP Community Initiation

Become a Community Cycling Coach

Cycling BC is facilitating a 1-day coaching course in Vancouver, BC on June 25th. Graduates of the course will be cleared to coach introductory cycling sessions in the community, either through Cycling BC's iRide program or with a local cycling club. Join us at the Kensington Community Center located at 5175 Dumfries Street.

The training required to become a Community Coach includes the completion of two NCCP workshops: the Community Coach "Let's Ride", and the Basic Cycling Skills session, which includes outdoor riding. These workshops have been combined into a full 1-day training event.

Features:

- 1-day coaching course
- Indoor curriculum 8am-2pm
- Outdoor practicum 2pm-5pm
- Class Size: 8 – 20 Participants
- Bring any style bicycle
- Learning Facilitator:
 - Ben Chaddock

Bookings:

- Space is still available – book here
- Visit www.cyclingbc.net/events

Course Cost

- $85.00 / participant
- Pay on attendance, cash or cheque made to "Cycling BC"

To learn more, visit our website: www.cyclingbc.net
To book, contact ben@cyclingbc.net or 604-737-3034

For The Love of Cycling

