

Road Future Champs Camp, July 6-10th

Cost: $250 (incl. Prospera Granfondo Axel Merckx Okanagan Entry)

Where: Penticton, BC

Learn more about cycling from world-class athletes, Olympic coaches, including Richard Wooles, and other experts who have the tools to help you take your riding to the next level.

The Future Champs Camp is aimed at 13-18 year old male and female development-level riders. This camp will help with athletes with their race preparation, tactics, mental strategies, recovery techniques, dealing with challenges of travel and racing away from home, equipment choices, and sponsorship appreciation.

The cost of the camp is $250, which includes accommodation at the Shoreline in Penticton (incl. kitchenettes for the athletes to prepare meals), ground transportation, entry into the 2016 Prospera Granfondo Axel Merckx Okanagan, a support vehicle on training rides, world class coaching, including Richard Wooles, seminars led by industry professionals, and a one of a kind experience.

To learn more, visit our website: <http://www.cyclingbc.net>

To register, contact our Coordinator; tara@cyclingbc.net, 604.626.2919, or register here.