

Cycling BC Athlete Assistance Program

The Cycling BC Athlete Assistance Program (CBC AAP) is an athlete – center program of financial assistance funded by Cycling BC. The program seeks to recognize high performance athletes who are participating in programs offered through Cycling BC to relieve some of the pressures associated with training and competition needs.

Selection Process

Selection of Athletes to receive CBC AAP is lead by the High Performance Coordinator in consultation with the Executive Director and High Performance Committee.

Selected Athletes

The High Performance Coordinator will present a list of all CBC AAP applicants to the High Performance Committee to review and select based on the selection criteria below.

1.0 Program Description

The CBC Athlete Assistance Program is designed to financially assist those athletes who demonstrate through their performance and commitment in Cycling that they have the potential to (1) be Nationally Carded; and (2) to be members of Canada's National Senior Teams.

The funding provided is a subsidy and not intended as the sole source of income. Funding is not automatic, and is subject to the following:

- Available funds specifically for this program as provided by Cycling BC;
- Submission of all required application forms and requested documents for CBC AAP;
- The meeting of all necessary criteria (see below);
- Ranking high enough by performance and scorecard point totals.

1.1 Role of Cycling BC

Cycling BC sets out the criteria for selection and leads the selection of applicants.

1.2 Age Range Policy

The focus of the program is to provide financial assistance to those athletes in the 15-25 year range (Training to Compete and Training to win stages of the LTAD). Cycling BC does not preclude funding athletes who are over the age of 25. For athletes over the age of 30, the athlete's performances must show the following:

- a. Potential for international level performances;
- b. A continued commitment to high-level performance;
- c. Whose event requires a longer period of athlete development to reach international performance levels;
- d. Whose performances have shown continued improvement during the previous years.

2.0 Obligations of Funding

Athletes receiving funding will have to adhere to the rules below:

2.1 Use of Banned Substances and Methods

BC's Policy on Sport and Physical Activity clearly outlines the "ethical pursuit of excellence" – which includes competing without the use of banned substances – as one of its pillars of support to sport. Cycling BC strongly opposes the use of prohibited substances and methods as they are contrary to the ethics of sport and may be harmful to the health of athletes. Since we look to our elite athletes to set the standards for all who aspire to be at the top level of competition, athletes who are suspended by the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport and/or their respective International Sport Federation for an anti-doping rule violation will be declared permanently ineligible for CBC Athlete Assistance Funding. For more information on Cycling BC's Anti Doping policy click here.

2.2 Use of Funds

Athletes receiving funding through CBC AAP can spend the funding obtained for the following purposes:

- Normal living costs
- Costs directly associated with training (e.g. coaching, facility fees)
- Costs associated with attending training camps and competitions (e.g. entry fees, travel costs)
- Sport specific equipment

2.3 Withdrawal of Funding

Cycling BC has the authority to withdraw CBC AAP support to any athlete if it is deemed that the athlete is no longer in compliance with the policies and requirements of the CBC Athlete Assistance Program or the terms laid out. If an athlete does not follow the guidelines laid out in the CBC AAP Selection Criteria he/she will have to repay all funds received as requested in writing by Cycling BC.
