

Part-time (Seasonal) Assistant Coach IRIDE SCHOOL & COMMUNITY PROGRAM

Vancouver & Fraser Valley: April – August

Do you like riding bikes? Do you like kids? Do you like playing games?

Does riding bikes with kids and playing games sound like fun?

Cycling BC's iRide program is a dynamic in-school and community program designed to inspire kids to ride bikes and connect them to youth cycling groups throughout the province.

The iRide program,

- Consists of 3-days of biking (Tue/Wed/Thur) with school gym classes
- Provides all the bikes/helmets/stunts for the program
- Uses game-based teaching methods
- Starts in April and concludes at the end of June with additional work in the summer and autumn
- Allows coaches to pick up additional hours (on Mondays & Weekends) and earn extra income
- Compensation $15/hr, with future opportunities to grow into head coach role

We are currently seeking energetic Assistant Coaches for iRide programs in Vancouver and the Fraser Valley. Previous cycling coaching experience is not required. We are looking for people who are:

- Super fun and like to smile!
- Athletic and passionate about cycling
- Open to learning new coaching and teaching skills
- Looking to gain experience delivering athletic programs
- Fluent English speakers
- Able to drive a vehicle with a trailer (asset but not required)

If this sounds like you, please submit your resume and cover letter to iRide@cyclingbc.net by March 1, 2019.

Selected applicants will be contacted by the iRide Manager and will be invited to participate in National Coaching Certification Program (NCCP) training on either February 15-16 or March 15-16 as part of the application process. Additional paid training and resources will be provided to successful candidates prior to the start of the program.
